

Anderson & Anderson Introduce Anger Management to the Philippines

George Anderson speaks to 400 members of the Philippine Psychiatric Association in Manila. The topic of the speech was: Anger Management, A cost saving intervention. The speech was well received and Anderson has been invited to return in March to train Psychiatrists in the Anderson & Anderson model of anger management. Take a glance at the convention below:

